WASHINGTON CITY:

MONDAY DECEMBER 19, 1864. MEMBERS OF Congress can be supplied with the STAR at their residences, put up in wrap. pers, by ordering it through the Secretary of the Senate, the Clerk of the House of Representatives, or at the S'ar office, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 11th street.

THE VICTORIES

Secretary Stanton's compactly worded bulletins of late military events, every line of which conveys news of a distinct Union success of magnitude, have carried joy to loyal hearts in all parts of the Union.

The boastful Hood routed after a sort that leaves to him scarcely a corporal's guard of his "grand army of invasion!" Forrest terribly mauled! Cobb, Hardee, Bragg, Beauregard & Company, who were to bring Sherman to grief in "the interior of Georgia," not able to give even a momentary check to Sherman in his holiday march through the center of rebeldom! Fort McAllister captured! Savannah virtually in our possession! Porter and Butler thundering away with imperative summons at the gates of the most important Confederate sea coast point! The entire railroad communication of the Confederacy broken up! The rebels routed in East Tennessee, Southwestern Virginia and North Carolina! Grant "massing his troops" in a way that scares Richmond!

Surely the "bottom of the Confederate tub' is out at 1 ast!

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE-AN. NUAL EXPORT FOR 1963 .- We consider the annual report of Commissioner Newton, for 1863, the most valuable report of the kind in all essentials that has yet seen the light. The report proper, of the department, consists of that of the commissioner, the superintendent of the experimental garden, the entomologist to the department, the statistician, and the article on the meteorology of the year, furnished by the Smithsonian Institute. These, however, embrace but a small portion of the volume. The remainder is occupied as heretofore, with essays and papers upon different topics connected with American husbandry, furnished by some of our best writers upon agriculture. The commissioner has judiciously ousted the gorgeously colored and costly engravings that have heretofore figured so conspicuously in the Agricultural Reports, and given in their place a larger number of accurate and valuable wood-cut illustrations.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS IN THE SENATE .- An exceedingly interesting debate sprang up in the Senate to-day on a motion to refer to an appropriate committee a bill authorizing the expenditure of ten millions of dollars for the defense of the Northern frontier. The feeling manifested is very strongly in favor of the most vigorous action, several of the Senators urging the Committee on Foreign Relations, to which similar bills have been already referred. to report to the Senate as soon as possible. Shortly after the reading of the journal, he begged to be excused from serving as chairman of the Committee en the District of Columbia, believing that there were others on the committee whose long familiarity with District affairs better adapted them to fill the position of chairman. SENATE.-Mr. Grimes introduced a bill to es-Referred to the Naval Committee. Mr. Doolitele introduced a bill to enable the President to expend the sum of $10,000,000, or so much thereof as in his opinion may be necessary, for erecting fortifications and floating batteries for protecting the lakes and frontier against the attacks of piratical and hostile expeditions organized in the British Provinces by the enemies of the United States. He moved to refer it to the Finance Committee. Mr Sumper suggested that it be referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, as the sub-ject was already under consideration in that committee.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Sherman, Howard, Foster, Johnsc . Dolittle, Hale, Farwell and others, evincing a determination to do whatever might be necessary for defence in the premises and evincing a disposition to repeal the reciprocity treaty.

HOUSE.—Among the bills introduced on leave was one by Mr. Rice, of Mass., creating the grade of Vice Admiral in the United States Navy; which was referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs. Mr. Davis, of Md., offered a resolution similar to that offered by him on Thursday, and which was then laid upon the table, declaring that Congress has a constitutional right to an authoritative voice in declaring and prescribing the foreign policy of the United States; and that while any declaration of foreign policy by Congress is pending it is not a proper subject for negotiation or explanation to a foreign policy policy. Mr. Farnsworth moved that the resolution lie on the table, and this was disagreed to—yeas 19, nays 73.

The Ontrage upon Little Octavie Rosseau. DISCHARGE OF LUSBY.

This morning, the examination of John F Lusby, who was arrested by the military authorities on the charge of having committed the horrible outrage upon the person of little Octavis Rosseau on the night of the 24th of last month, which resulted in her death on the following night, was brought to a close.

The case would have been concluded on Friday morning last, but Judge Fisher (before whom the accused was brought out on a write of habeas corpus) was taken sick and was not able to resume the examination until this morning, when, as before stated, Messrs. Bradley, Jr., and W. Y. Fendall appeared for the prisoner. The sister of the wife of the accused. Martha Howland, (who it was reported gave the information upon which the accused was arrested, was sworn, and testified that on the night of the occurrence she was at the house of the accused, but did not see him, or know whether he was at home or not, nor had she heard the accused and wife talk of the affair; witness never knew how the prisoner's clothes were John Taylor, sworn.- Witness is a colored man, and worked with Henry Watkins (who testified at the last examination) in getting the marble columns to the Capitol |- Witness on the night in question saw a gentleman pass where he was at work and take a seat on a stone. This was about 4 o'clock, and he remained there at six, when witness stopped work. The little girl, when witness lett work, was playing on the bank near by. Witness' attention was called to the man by his being drunk. The man had on a soldier's coat, dark pants and brown slouch hat, and wore moustaches, but no whiskers. He appeared to have been lately

Mr. Bradley stated that he had witnesses to prove that the accused never wore a mustache nor a slouch hat. Judge Fisher ordered the prisoner's discharge from custody; and he received the congratulations of his many friends, who have refused to believe that he could be guilty of such an in famous crime. As usually happens when a person is arrested on a grave charge, a great many reports were affoat to the prejudice of the prisoner, to the effect that he had been guilty heretofore of improper acts of a similar character. We have endeavored to sift the truth of these reports, and are satisfied that they are either altogether groundless or that the accused has been confounded with some other person. It was difficult indeed to conceive that a young man so prepossessing in appearance and vouched for so respectably could be guilty of so revolting a deed, and all sincerely join in the gratification expressed by his relatives and friends, that his good name has been thus fully and honorably cleared by the action of the court. We may add that some evidence has recently come to light indicating that the party guilty of the deed was a partially demented person, who had been seen in that neighborhood about the time of the deed, clad as described by some of the witnesses, and who had been known to exhibit perverted propersities designating him as not unlikely to be the offender in this case.

It was caused by the wires of the American Telegraph while in use com-ing in contact with the alarm wires. The letters of the Morse instrument are the numerals of the alarm telegraph, which caused the alarm to be given apparently from several boxes on that circuit. The difficulty will not occur again, as the wires will be separated.
